2018 NEW LAWYERS TRAINING COURSES

Information

Who is required to complete a New Lawyer Training (NLT) program & what are the basic requirements?

Attorneys admitted by examination and attorneys initially registering for corporate status on or after Nov. 1, 2008, must comply with the NLT educational requirements of Gov. Bar X, unless otherwise exempted.

General Requirements

- You must complete 12 hours of NLT instruction by the end of your first biennial reporting period. Your biennial reporting period is based on your last name. An attorney whose last name begins with a letter A through L must complete his or her educational hours by the end of each odd-numbered year and an attorney whose last name begins with a letter M through Z must complete his or her educational hours by the end of each even-numbered year.
- If you were admitted to the practice of law or initially registered for corporate status in the second year of your first biennial reporting period, you must complete your NLT requirements by the end of the next biennial reporting period.

For example:

- If you were admitted to the practice of law or initially registered for corporate status in 2016, and your last name begins with a letter A through L, you must complete your NLT educational hours by December 31, 2017.
- If you were admitted to the practice of law or initially registered for corporate status in 2017, and your last name begins with a letter M through Z, you must complete your NLT educational hours by December 31, 2018.

Classroom Instruction

- The required 12 hours of NLT instruction must be earned by attending courses that have been accredited by the Supreme Court of Ohio's CLE Commission as NLT education.
- Three of the required twelve hours of instruction must include the following: one hour of professional conduct, one hour of law office management, and one hour of client fund management.
- Nine of the required twelve hours of instruction must be completed in substantive law topics.

Mentoring

- If you are participating in the Supreme Court mentoring program, you need only complete three hours of classroom NLT instruction in professional conduct, law office management, and trust account management. Your participation in the mentoring programs satisfies the remaining nine-hour requirement.

Carry-Over Credit

If you take more than the required 12 hours of NLT Credit, you may be able to carry over up to 12 hours of credit to the next compliance period.

Further Questions?

Your specific NLT requirement depends on several factors, including your year of admission, method of admission, last name, and registration status. We strongly encourage you to contact the Ohio Supreme Court CLE Commission (614.387.9320 or ccl@sc.ohio.gov) if you have questions regarding your requirement.
