Learn

Learn with the CBA's high-quality continuing legal education and legal news

Take advantage of member discounts on the CBA's live and on-demand CLE. With a variety of formats and topics, there's a CLE to meet your needs and interests. CBA members can attend select free CLEs throughout the year and purchase CLE bundle passes to save even more!

Receive the CBA Report, the CBA's bimonthly publication, featuring news and updates relevant to you and your career. Members also receive the CBA's monthly Updates e-newsletter, Members Monthly e-newsletter, and have access to the CBA blog.

Litigators have the opportunity to join the Potter Stewart Inn of Court. Plan and attend CLE programs focusing on matters of ethics, litigation skills and professionalism, designed to help lawyers become more effective advocates and counselors, with a keener ethical awareness.

Enhance the cohesion, character, and inclusiveness of our local legal profession with Lawyers Connecting Beyond the Law. LCBL is an enriching, culturally responsive program bringing together lawyers and law students of diverse backgrounds.

Have an ethical quandary? The CBA's Ethics Hotline can help. Members of the CBA Ethics & Professional Responsibility Committee will help you interpret your obligations under the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct.

Engage

Engage with your colleagues and network through the CBA

With over 20 active practice groups, meet regularly to discuss current issues and developments in your field with your colleagues. Meetings are held via Zoom for your convenience.

Professional Development and Interest Groups – like the Young Lawyers Section, Women Lawyers Section, and several others – provide opportunities to network with colleagues with similar interests across practice areas.

Join your colleagues for networking and special events throughout the year, including happy hours, the CBA Annual Meeting, the Memorial Service and many more.

Join a CBA LinkedIn Group and stay engaged on social media. Each practice group has a LinkedIn Group to provide a friendly forum for discussion, provide news and promote events.

Lead

Become a leader with your local legal community

The Cincinnati Academy of Leadership for Lawyers (CALL) is an innovative program focusing on practical, professional, and ethical issues facing local attorneys. Sessions meet January – May, and the program qualifies for a minimum of 20 CLE hours. Participants must have five years of legal experience beyond law school.

Take on leadership roles in CBA groups and committees. Practice and Interest group leaders facilitate opportunities for attorneys to meet and learn together.

Members can apply for appointment to several CBA committees, including Grievance, Ethics and Professional Responsibility, Diversity and Inclusion and many more.

Share your expertise with your colleagues by teaching CLE courses and contributing to the CBA Report and blog. Email cle@cincybar.org for more information on how to contribute.
