PROGRAM

Former Ohio Governor Bob Taft will tell the story of Alphonso Taft, the first president of the Cincinnati Bar Association and a leading citizen of Cincinnati in the early 19th century. He will describe his career as a respected attorney and judge, his famous judicial opinion, his work in founding important Cincinnati institutions and his state and national role as an early leader in the Republican Party. He established a tradition of public service that has continued through five generations of the Taft family.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

The Honorable Bob Taft,
Former Governor, State of Ohio

Bob Taft served as Ohio's 67th Governor (1999-2007). He graduated from Yale University with a bachelor's degree, received his master's degree in government from Princeton University, and earned his law degree from the University of Cincinnati Law School. Taft began his career in public service as a volunteer teacher for the Peace Corps in East Africa. He has served as a member of the Ohio House of Representatives, as a Hamilton County commissioner and as Ohio's Secretary of State. In his role as Governor, Taft focused on improving schools, reforming Ohio's tax system, creating advanced, high paying jobs and helping communities clean up polluted sites, protect river corridors and build recreational trails. After serving two terms in the state's top executive position, Taft joined the University of Dayton in 2007 as a Distinguished Research Associate; he teaches Legislative Politics and Education Policy and helps oversee the Statehouse Civic Scholars summer internship program.
