Best Practices for Genealogy in a Legal Setting

March 8, 2023

12 – 1 p.m.

1.0 Hour General CLE Credit (pending)

PROGRAM

Accredited Genealogist® Laurie Hermance-Moore will discuss how a credentialed genealogist consults with probate and real estate attorneys to accurately identify and document next-of-kin. Topics include:

- The standards of professional genealogy: it's much more than searching Ancestry.com
- How a skilled genealogist identifies and locates the correct individuals and handles complicated families
- Important techniques used to restructure a family
- What the attorney should expect from the genealogist (reports, communication, family trees, service)
- How to select a qualified genealogist
- Q&A

PRESENTER

Laurie Hermance-Moore, MLS, Accredited Genealogist®, is accredited in genealogy research for US Midwest states through the International Commission for the Accreditation of Professional Genealogists (ICAPGenSM) and has completed additional coursework in forensic genealogy and other advanced topics.
